

The Department of Education determines a student's status as dependent or independent by the answers the student provides on certain items of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students are classified as dependent or independent because federal student aid programs are based on the principle that students (and their parents) are considered the primary source of support for postsecondary education.

Self-sufficiency of the student or parent's unwillingness to financially contribute to a student's education are not sufficient reasons for determining a student's status as independent. However there are situations when a student may have unusual circumstances in which s/he should be considered independent. There must be a justifiable reason to excuse the parents from their financial responsibility.

The following information explains the procedure used to determine a student's eligibility for an Independent Appeal. A Financial Aid Administrator will review the student's appeal by examining the supporting documentation provided by the student and will either approve or deny the student's request. The student will be notified in writing of the decision.

PLEASE NOTE: The Financial Aid Administrator's decision is final and cannot be appealed to the U.S. Department of Education.

Section I: Circumstances Given Consideration

Parental Support was terminated due to:

1. A student's voluntary or involuntary removal from their parent's home due to an extreme situation that threatened the student's health and/or safety.
2. Incapacity of parent(s) due to incarceration, mental or physical illness, or the inability of the applicant to locate the parent(s).
3. Other extenuating circumstances that can be sufficiently documented.

Section II: Review Procedures

1. All submitted documentation will be reviewed by the financial aid administrator.
2. An official notification of the administrator's decision will be sent to the student along with an explanation of any further action necessary to complete his/her application for aid.
3. If the student has filed a FAFSA for the year under review, the financial aid administrator will make any necessary corrections to the FAFSA.
4. If the student has not yet filed a FAFSA for the year under review, instructions explaining how to apply will be sent to the student.

Section III: Renewal of an Independent Appeal for Future Years

Students who are granted an Independent Appeal will be required to renew their appeal each subsequent year. The Financial Aid Administrator will request documentation from the student regarding their current status for review.

NOTE: To be considered for an Independent Appeal, you must complete the second page of this form and provide the documentation required to the Office of Student Financial Aid.
